Don't worry, there hasn't been a change in the Behaviour Policy that means we have pupils arrested. The Police have been in to speak to the children about British Values; the Rule of Law in particular. Our Peace Reps spent some time with the police afterwards learning a bit more about what services the police offer and trying out some of the police gear!

World Book Day! – Thursday 6th March 2025

There were some absolutely amazing outfits... and some VERY naughty Cats in Hats (Ms Russell)! Some amazing books and it was just an brilliant and joyous day. Well, apart from when Mr. Cross cried like a baby in assembly! Thank you so much for the effort that you put in to make World Book Day such an amazing experience for the children!

Read your way

Thanks so much for sharing your amazing "Read Your Way" photos. Here are just a selection of some amazing photos that have been sent in. We will use these to create a display in school to promote our commitment to reading for pleasure.

Notice for parents – No dogs allowed on site

This is a polite reminder that there are no dogs allowed on school site, unless they are a support animal e.g. guide dog. This includes dogs that are held or carried in a sling. If, for some reason, you have to bring a dog, please wait outside the school gate and your child will be dismissed to you and meet you at the gate.

Midday supervisors

Do you like midday? Do you like supervising? Well, this could be the job for you! We are looking for two midday supervisors to support with lunchtimes. This includes setting up amazing activities for the children to play with, modelling what good play looks like and keeping children safe and happy at lunchtime. If you think this is the job for you, please get in contact with the school office by emailing: office@priory-jun.notts.sch.uk

Year 6

We would like to welcome Ms Karen Olley to our school team. She will be working in school for the next few weeks, supporting in year six. She will then take over Class 7 – Mrs. Arkley-Brown's class when Mrs. Arkley-Brown leave to start her Maternity Leave. The children in class 7 will get the next couple of weeks of getting to know Ms Olley whilst she gets to know the school working alongside Mrs. Arkley-Brown

Thanks for your continued support,

Mr. Cross
