10th September 2021

Dear Parents,

Our history topic for the Autumn term is "World War II." With this in mind, we have booked our first trip of the school year to Bletchley Park, Milton Keynes. The visit includes stories through immersive films, interactive displays, museum collections and faithfully recreated WW2 rooms, The first Bletchley Park Codebreakers.

The trip will be on Friday 5th November and the cost will be £18.00 per child which includes entrance fee and coach travel, payable online through the School Money system before Friday 15th October. Children in receipt of free school meals will be free of charge.

If your child is eligible for a free school meal school will automatically order a packed lunch for them. All other children will need to bring a packed lunch with them.

With Bletchley Park being a little further away we will need to leave school at 7:30am so children will need to arrive at school between 7am and 7:15am, we will hope to be back at school between 4pm and 4:30pm but will let you know nearer the time.

Many thanks

Mr Elliott and Miss Sail
